Open HELP/ABOUT to find out what version of OziExplorer you have. Just because you have recently purchased a copy does not mean you will have the latest version available.

Ozi EXPLORER

GPS Mapping Software

Version : 3.96.3b

We always choose to use the latest development version of OziExplorer and very seldom have any issues and suggest you do also to maximize the excellent and continual development work that is going on in the background.

1. Go to <http://www.ozieplorer.com>
2. In the top left hand corner under "SOFTWARE" choose "OZIEXPLORER"
3. Near the centre towards the top of the OziExplorer Software page choose "DEVELOPMENT"
4. Download the file and during that activity you will be asked where to install it, more likely SETUP will suggest OziExplorer on a particular hard drive - confirm (or change) this is where your operating copy is and it should all happen after that.

Download the latest update from the OziExplorer website and follow the instructions there. Upgrades are FREE once you have a licenced copy.
